- If you would like a hard copy of the Math 141 textbook (in loose leaf format), you may purchase one at a local bookstore.

- A new window containing the eBook will appear. Play around with all the tools in the interactive eBook.

The screenshot displays the user interface for the 'Finite Mathematics TAN' eBook. At the top, a blue header contains the title 'Finite Mathematics TAN' and a 'Student Preview' button. A search bar is located to the right of the header. Below the header, a navigation bar includes 'Contents' and 'Media' buttons, along with a 'Notes...' field and various utility icons like YouTube, a link, a pencil, a magnifying glass, a hand, a printer, and a help icon. A zoom level of '100%' is also visible. On the left side, a 'Table of Contents' panel is open, showing a list of chapters with expandable arrows. The main content area on the right displays the book's cover, which features the title 'TAN Finite Mathematics' and the subtitle 'For the Managerial, Life, and Social Sciences Tenth Edition'. The cover art includes images of a lightning bolt, a crowd of people, and wind turbines. At the bottom of the interface, there are navigation arrows, a 'cover' button, and buttons for 'My Preferences' and 'Student Discussion'. A footer at the very bottom reads 'Cengage Inc. © All rights reserved.'
