Lie algebras and superalgebras graded by root systems

I'll talk how classical Lie algebras of matrices over arbitrary rings, the Freudenthal-Tits Magic Square and the recently discovered exceptional "superconformal" algebras arise within one classification scheme.