

Permission to Hand Back Graded Papers

When I hand back graded exams, quizzes, or homework in class, I will either pass them down the rows in the classroom, put them in alphabetized stacks in the front of the room for you to pick up, or hand them back individually. In all three ways, it is possible for other students to see your grade. I will do my best to conceal your grade by not writing it on the front page of an exam and by folding your quizzes, but it is still possible for other students to see your grade. If you would not like to receive graded papers back in class, you will have to come and get them from me during my office hours.

Please check one and return to me:

_____ Yes, I will allow you to hand back graded papers in class, even though I understand it is possible for other students to see my grade.

_____ No, I do not want my graded papers handed back during class. I understand that I must pick up my papers from you during your office hours.
