LEARNING OBJECTIVE/COURSE CONTENT: We will use the TI-84/83, excel, and other computer programs to explore the following topics: systems of linear equations, matrices, linear programming, sets, counting principles, probability, statistics, and finance.

LABS/PROJECTS: If you miss the lab time, you will be able to get the project from the webpage.

GRADING POLICY: At the end of the semester, I will average the grades on the labs/projects and the Lab grade will be assigned in the following fashion: A = 90-100, B = 80-89, C = 70-79, D = 60-69, and F = 0-59

A.D.A. POLICY STATEMENT: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Department of Student Life, Disability Services, in Room B118 of Cain Hall or call 845-1637.

COPYRIGHT POLICY: The handouts used in this course are copyrighted. By "handouts," I mean all materials generated for this class, which include but are not limited to syllabi, quizzes, exams, in-class materials, review sheets, and additional problems sets. Because these materials are copyrighted, you do not have the right to copy the handouts, unless I expressly grant permission.

SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY: An Aggie Does Not Lie, Cheat, or Steal or Tolerate Those Who Do. The Aggie Code of Honor will be enforced in this course. For the purpose of this course, cheating will be defined as (but not limited to) access or use of unauthorized material during exams and quizzes, collaboration between students during exams, quizzes or assignments for which group work is not allowed, perusal of another student's work during exams and quizzes, copying other student's work or allowing other students to copy you work on any assignment, quiz or exam, and having unauthorized programs or other information stored on calculators when these calculators are accessible during an exam or quiz.

For additional information about Aggie Honor System consult <http://www.tamu.edu/aggiehonor/>

SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.
