Textbooks:

Homework: There is a list of suggested homework problems on my web-site. I will NOT collect homework in class. It is imperative that you work these problems. If you need help on these problems, please see the streaming video solutions on my web-site.

In Class Quizzes: There will be several in-class quizzes each week. Each quiz will contain a couple of questions similar to the suggested homework problems.

Take-Home Assignments: There will be at least one take-home assignment each week. You are allowed to work together on these assignments, but copying will NOT be tolerated. Please make sure to write up your own solutions.

Exams: There will be three in-class exams. The tentative exam schedule is as follows:

- Exam 1: Wednesday, 13/July/2005
- Exam 2: Friday, 22/July/2005
- Exam 3: Tuesday, 2/August/2005

Final Exam: The final exam will be comprehensive and will consist of multiple choice problems only. The final exam is scheduled for Wednesday, 10/August/2005 1-3pm.
Grading: A(90-100%), B(80-89%), C(70-79%), D(60-69%), F(0-59%)

Notes:

A TI-83, TI-83 Plus, TI-84, or TI-84 Plus is REQUIRED. Only these three types of calculators are permitted. You may only use calculator programs that I give you throughout the semester. Using additional programs on your calculator is considered scholastic dishonesty and will be punished to the fullest extent.

Any questions concerning the grading of a homework assignment, quiz, or exam must be presented to me within one week of the return of the assignment. Otherwise the grade will not be changed.

Attendance is MANDATORY in this course.

Make-up Exams will only be allowed if you have an absence authorized under University Regulations. You must email me within ONE working day of the scheduled exam. In-Class Quizzes and Take-Home Assignments that are missed because of a University Excused absence will be dealt with on a case by case basis. Again, you must notify me in writing within ONE working day or you forfeit your rights.

If you are having problems please come to my office hours as soon as possible. Please do not wait until the semester is half over to seek help. The sooner you seek help, the more likely it will pay off. Other sources of help include streaming videos and help sessions. The days and times of the help sessions will be posted on my web page as soon as they are scheduled.

I will periodically send announcements via Neo. You are responsible for checking your Neo account regularly.

I will be posting grades throughout the semester on WebCT Vista.

Out of courtesy for all, make sure cell-phones are turned off before coming to class.

Copying work done by others, either in-class or out of class, is an act of scholastic dishonesty and will be prosecuted to the full extent allowed by University policy. Remember the Aggie Code: ”An Aggie does not lie, cheat, or steal, or tolerate those who do.” For more information on the Honor Council Rules and Procedures please visit http://www.tamu.edu/aggiehonor.

Copyright Policy: All printed materials distributed in class or on the web are protected by Copyright laws. One xerox copy (or download from the web) is allowed for personal use. Multiple copies or sale of any of these materials is strictly prohibited.

According to the American with Disabilities Act, all students with disabilities must be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accomodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact the Department of Student Life, Services for Students with Disabilities in Koldus 126 or call 845-1637.
