

Laplacians and the Cheeger inequality for directed graphs

Fan Chung Graham

Department of Mathematics

University of California, San Diego

We consider Laplacians for directed graphs and derive the Cheeger inequalities which relate the eigenvalues of the Laplacian to other invariants for directed graphs. These techniques can be used to deal with various problems arising in the study of non-reversible Markov chains and in particular, random walks on directed graphs.