

Incompressible Almost Planar 3D-Flows and Stochastic Processes on an Open Book.

Mark Freidlin

Department of Mathematics

University of Maryland

I will show that a pure deterministic motion of an incompressible fluid in certain situation should be approximated by a stochastic process on an open book. I will introduce the relative entropy for the deterministic flow and consider the reaction - convection problem for such a fluid.