

Isospectral quantum graphs

Uzy Smilansky
Weizmann Institute
Rehovot, Israel

A method to construct isospectral pairs of quantum graphs analogous to the known domains in R^2 will be presented. Their spectra and wave functions will be discussed using their transplantation property. Numerical and analytical evidence will be provided to support the conjecture that by counting the nodal domains, one can distinguish between isospectral graphs.