Sourav Chatterjee

Nonlinear large deviations

I will talk about a general technique for computing large deviations of nonlinear functions of independent Bernoulli random variables. Several examples will be worked out and open problems will be discussed. This is based on a joint work with Amir Dembo, as well as several subsequent papers by other authors.